

Name _____

RIGHTS OF A PERSON ACCUSED OF A CRIME

1. A person is presumed i_____ until proven g_____.
2. The burden of proving an accusation against a d_____ falls on the p_____.
3. Citizens are protected against unreasonable s_____ and s_____.
4. The F_____ Amendment states that people may not be required to i_____ themselves. They have the right to remain s_____.
5. The F_____ Amendment also bans d_____ j_____ which means that a person can't be r_____ for the same crime if found not g_____ the first time.
6. The F_____ Amendment says that people accused of serious federal crimes must be brought before a g_____ j_____.
7. A person has the right to be defended by a l_____.
8. People have "the right to a s_____ and p_____ trial.
9. A person accused of a crime has the right to an i_____ jury.
10. The Eighth Amendment outlaws "c_____ and u_____ punishment."
11. B_____ is a sum of money an a_____ person pays to a court to win release from j_____.